HERB LF – Sunliner

A Sunliner
AA Down To The Sound?
AA Shake!

Cat. No.: FAR-OTRS 10
Release: 18.07.2008
Distr. Vinyl: Groove Attack

Herb LF strikes again with a superb summer EP. With him being part of the Westpark Unit Duo (w/ Ingo Sanger) a few releases/remixes on Dessous Recordings, Farside, Future Classic, Dpress recently hit the streets. After his last years hit “Fruchtalarm/City Rush Boogie Dub” on Farside Records, it’s time for another Herb LF Solo Joint.

“Sunliner” takes you on a trip and has a deep melancholic mood with a perfect catchy piano hook. When the Reese Bassline drops, “Sunliner” takes one step further and creates big dancefloor pressure. Expect a very special moment when you play out this wonderful piece of music in the club.

Dub is the word in “Down To The Sound?”. Some “cheeba cheeba” business, a smokers riddim, delayed stabs and a killer bassline is enough for this dubby deep tune. Ring the alarm!

One of the most groovin’ 4 to the floor trax that has seen the light recently is named “Shake!”. With a few dubby dancehall snippets and a slightly metallic sounding synth, Herb LF adds live percussions from Tim Friesenhagen. Even the sound of a lighter (!!)

is used as a rhythmic element. Get your Groove on this perfect percussive atmospheric tool. Shake it, baby!
