A Herb LF & Petkovski - Bordel Muza

AA Petkovski – Lullaby For Rastko (Herb LF Remix) Petkovski – Lullaby For Rastko (Original)

It has been quite some time, since Farside Records presented new music from Herb LF. After his successful releases on labels like Circus Company, Soulprint, Supafeed & of course his biggest Farside joints “Sunliner” or “Fruchtalarm”, Herb LF now teams up with Belgrade’s finest Radio DJ Petko aka Petkovski. Petkovski is best known from his Playground Radio Show with listeners worldwide and its beautiful eclectic selection of just good music. Together they introduce “Lullaby For Rastko”, an astonishing EP full of deepness and wonderful music.

Petkovski’s “Lullaby For Rastko” is a timeless ode to his little son and does not need to be categorised. The song is a beautiful downbeat masterpiece that will never leave your head once you heard it.

Herb LF took the harmonies of “Lullaby For Rastko” and builds up a huge dub-inspired house monster that sounds like Herb LF in excellent form.

Expect to see headz turning when the demanding killer beat & bassline starts, but wait until this track hits the floor. Everybody will be taken over by this masterpiece remix and its demanding groove.

“Bordel Muza” is reducing the tempo a little and is keeping a deep vibe with beautiful chords & strings. What else can you expect from Petkovski & Herb LF as big basslines and tight beats with every little musically detail on its right place? 9 minutes of pleasure!
