WESTPARK UNIT – Mo´ Rotation

A Proper Thang
AA Mo´ Rotation

Cat. No.: FAR-OTRS 9
Release: 19.04.2008
Distr. Vinyl: Groove Attack

Westpark Unit aka Herb LF and Ingo Sanger are back to their homebase at Farside Records with two brandnew Trax “Proper Thang” and “Mo´ Rotation” after their latest releases/remixes on famous labels like Future Classic, Dessous Recordings, Dpress, etc.

After last years hit “Jeepah” and the critically acclaimed remix of “Springsequence” for Icelands Asli on Farside Records they stormed the playlists of Jimpster, Djinx or Steve Bug. “Mo´ Rotation” is the next step in the history of Westpark Units 80s funk influences they started with “Blaxrotation” and fits well within the sound of today! Always sexy, dope, deep & dubby.

“Proper Thang” is as deep as jeep and builds up in the typical Westpark Unit style with some demanding but tricky drumpatterns and a wicked bassline. To surprise, the duo added some old school snippets into the drop, put them into a different context and present a jewel of a bangin´ deep house tune with one of the most enthusiastic moments when the beats come back in.

“Mo´ Rotation” sets up with just some shakers, a demanding percussion loop, a booming bass and needs almost 5 minutes to get things started. When the bassdrum finally drops in, the club is already near ecstasy while the music takes a small step from 1983 to 2008 and a deep masterpiece is coming your way. Is this still house music?? It definitely is!
